Debate on the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget:

Pursuant to the order of the House of March 22, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for a period of three hours of debate on the concurrent resolution on the budget. After debate, the Committee of the Whole rose without motion.

Pages H 1148-54, H 1156-76, D 272

"... I am troubled by the budget resolution's disregard of the funding needs of the Department of Justice. Time and time again I have heard the need to enforce our laws instead of passing new ones. How can we expect law enforcement when this budget cuts funding for the Department of Justice by $1.6 billion in fiscal year 2002. Based upon the budget submitted by President Bush, these cuts are to be largely applied to State and local law enforcement assistance. The highly successful COPS program falls within these targeted cuts..." (McCarthy, page H 1170)

Memorials:

Also, a memorial of the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Guam, relative to Resolution No. 6 memorializing the United States Congress to initiate the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to read: "Neither the Supreme Court nor any inferior court of the United States shall have the power to instruct or order a state or political subdivision thereof, or any official of such state or political subdivision, to levy or increase taxes;" to the Committee on the Judiciary.
